MURDERED MAN FEARED PASSENGERS INVESTIGATORS SAY

Brown County Man Killed in Auto Near Columbus Was Araid Passengers Might Do Him Harm.

Sheriff Slack and force, of Franklin county, Ohio, working upon the murder case in which Harry M. Day of Brown county last week, lost his life near Shadeville, a few miles south of Columbus, states that they have clues which look to be sufficient to lead to the identity of the two men who shot and robbed Day. During the investigation it was learned that Day, when in a restaurant at Chillicothe, told a friend that he had two passengers whom he was going to take to Columbus, and that he was suspicious of them and asked this friend to accompany him. The friend was unable to go because of some previous engagement.

The Columbus authorities went the latter part of the week to Chillicothe, where they informed Chillicothe police that they had reasons to believe that the men, after they shot Day and threw his body from the automobile in which they were riding, took the machine to Columbus, where they left it, and then hoarding a traction car went back to Chillicothe.

In the statement that Day made, when in the physician's office at Shadeville, after being gathered up along the road, was that when the robbery occurred one of the men was riding in the front seat with him. The man sitting in the rear seat shot him in the back, and began beating him over the head with the revolver. He was robbed of fifty dollars, they overlooking four dollars in his overcoat pocket. When his body was being thrown from the machine a second shot was fired into his stomach.
When Day was discovered by a physician who was passing with his family, he was lying along the roadside. This man seeing an automobile going at a terrific rate, stopped at Shadeville and told what he had seen and when a party was organized and returned Day had dragged himself to the roadside and was sitting up. He died shortly afterward.

Maysville Suit and Dry Goods Company, has returned from a business trip to St. Louis.

LITTLE GIRL MEETS WITH A PAINFUL ACCIDENT

Adams County Girl Falls With Corn Stalk in Her Mouth and Is Painfully Injured.

West Union, Ohio, February 21—Dorothy, the four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kirby Edgington, met with a distressingly painful accident last Thursday.

The little tot was playing about the house with a piece of sharp-pointed cornstalk in her mouth when she stumbled and fell. The pointed end of the stalk penetrated the child's palate and terribly lacerated the roof of her mouth.

The child suffered excruciating pain and it was with the greatest difficulty that Mrs. Croull & Crawford, of West Union, and Dr. O. B. Kirkpatrick, of Cherry Fork, finally succeeded in performing the delicate task of closing the edges of the ragged wound with several stitches.

REV. LITERAL SUCCEEDS REV. O'NEAL AS ELDER

The Rev. E. R. Overly, former pastor of the Third Street M. E. Church, this city, but who has recently been dismissed superintendent of the Covington-Lexington district of the M. E. Church, has resigned to become pastor of Grace Church, Newport. He succeeds Rev. O. J. Carder, who has gone to Atlanta, Ga. The Rev. J. M.
Literal, also a former pastor of the Third Street Church, this city, becomes superintendent in Rev. Overly's stead and Rev. J. B. Mahaffey, of South Carolina, succeeds Rev. Literal as pastor of the Shiloh Church, Covington.

ELECTION MAY BE ASKED ON SPECIAL 20-CENT ROAD TAX

Interest Is Developing in Mason County In a Special Twenty-Cent
Road Tax For This Year—Commissioners May Be Petitioned.

Up to the present time quite a number of the counties in the state of Kentucky have voted a special twenty cent road tax for the improvement of the roads and pikes in the county.
Considerable interest has been shown in Mason county during the past few weeks in such a special tax.

It is well known that the people of Mason county have not favored the issue of a large amount of bonds for road work but in face of the very prosperous times the special tax seems to be meeting with quite a bit of encouragement from all parts of the county. It became known here yesterday that a special effort was being made in some parts of the county to have the County Court call a special election in the near future on this proposition. Judge Purnell will not call such an election unless he is petitioned by a goodly number of the tax payers. It is learned, but a special effort is being made to present him with such a petition bearing the names of a good percentage of our county tax payers.

It is pointed out that many counties in the state who have not taken well to the bond issue proposition have taken well to this special taxation for road purposes and it is said that because of the general prosperity in the county this year, this is the accepted time to place some of the money into good roads in all parts of the county.

The Mason County Commissioners have done nobly with the funds they have had at their disposal in the improvement of the county roads but a larger fund is necessary if real construction is to be done that will be lasting and far reaching. Under the present limitation of finances the commissioners cannot do any great amount of county-side work but can only hope to put roads in good condition here and there throughout the county while should a special road tax be voted by the people a general county-side plan of road construction would be possible.

It is learned today that interest is manifest in the proposed twenty-cent extra tax in all parts of the county and petitions will probably be in circulation in a very short time and will be presented to the County Court within the next month for action. If interest continues at the present high pitch.

YOUNG SHADE TREES ARE SCRAPED

Some outcrop on Wednesday night scraped the bark from eight young shade trees planted in front of the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. R. L.
Turner at the corner of East Second and Lexington streets. The trees will no doubt be killed. The person who would do such a dastardly act as this should be punished and punished severely.

COAL HEAVING-REVIVED

Reports are reaching the police that coal heaving is being reviewed in the East end of the city. Only a few weeks ago a number of youngsters were taken before the grand jury and indicted on charges of stealing coal from the railroad company and for a time the practice was stopped but it seems to be on in full force again.

TAKEN TO OHIO FOR BURIAL

DECISION ON SCHOOL BOOKS EXPECTED TODAY

Gilbert Says Changes Will Not Total the Maximum of Six Allowed Under New Law.

Frankfort, Ky., February 20—Although rumors of every kind and description have filled the hotel lobbies here tonight concerning the public school book adoption which may be made tomorrow, the members of the commission remain silent as to their tentative conclusion. State Superintendent Gilbert said tonight that it is very likely that the members of the commission would complete their work tomorrow, but that nothing had been decided upon. The reports current among the book men tonight are to the effect that nearly every branch has been changed, although Gilbert said today that the commission would not reach the limit of six subjects in their changes.

There can only be six subjects changed. It is pretty generally conceded that the applier and physiology by Kentucky authors will be adopted, which will comprise two of the subjects changed. There is a fight to change the History of the United States, as the Daughters of the Confederacy prefer another book taught in the schools of this state. It is likely, too, that there will be a change in the arithmetics and probably grammars. But these changes are by no means certain.

The book men are positively assured and are unable to obtain even the slightest information on the tentative conclusion of the commissions. It is not positively known that the work of the commission will be completed tomorrow, although it is believed that the adoption will be announced tomorrow afternoon.

HOY MUSICIANS SHOW DEVELOPMENT AT HOME

The members of the Maysville Boys' Band are beginning to show quite a bit of development in their work. The boys practicing at home show that they are learning and learning rapidly. Entire tunes are being carried by the boys all the way through and it now looks as if it would not be so very long before the entire band will surprise us.

MRS. WATSON INJURED IN CINCINNATI HOTEL

Word has been received here that Mrs. Duke Watson, formerly of this

LOOK OUT FOR BAD TEN DOLLAR BILL IN CIRCULATION IN CITY

Stranger in the City With Raised Ten Dollar Bill—Merchants Should Be Careful About Changing Notes.

It became known this morning that a smooth stranger in the city is endeavoring to pass bad money on local merchants and a warning is issued for all salesmen to be careful about the money they are handling for the next few days or until the operator has been captured by the officers or has left this section.

A well dressed stranger stepped into a local store Thursday night and purchased about thirty-five cents worth of merchandise. In payment for the merchandise he threw down a paper bill, which folded appeared to be a ten dollar bill at the same time asking the merchant if he could change ten dollars. The merchant went to the cash register and was short of change but he also noticed that the bill looked very peculiar and investigating found that the bill had been a one dollar bill which had been raised by some mechanical means to appear a ten dollar bill but when unfolded very plainly showed it to be only a one dollar bill.

The man was told that the bill could not be changed but the merchant offered to step out and get the change for him, meaning to call the officers. The man, however, was too smooth to permit anything like this and objected, saying that he would step out and get the change and return for the merchandise. He stepped out and has not been seen by the merchant since. The police have not been able to locate him as yet.

It may be that the man has left the city feeling that the merchant reported the matter to the police but it may also be that the fellow is still in the city and working the same game on other merchants who are not so careful in examining their paper money as the merchant who was first struck by the smooth individual.

It will be at least safe for the merchants to instruct their clerks to be careful of paper money for some time and especially ten dollar bills. Don't forget to be careful for some time for the smooth individual may have left the city but may be back or send back a confederate when he thinks the scare has died out.

HUSBAND CONDEMNED FOR FELONY, WIFE CHARGES

In Petition For Divorce Filed Today Mason County Woman Says Husband Is Under Condemnation For Felony.

Mrs. Luella Burdon filed suit for a divorce from her husband, Darrell Burdon, in the Mason Circuit Court today and in her petition she sets out three causes as grounds for the granting of the divorce.

The case is a very peculiar one in that the wife sets out as one of the grounds for the granting of her divorce that the husband "has incurred condemnation for felony in the state of Ohio." It is understood that the defendant in the case was convicted of a felony at Portsmouth, Ohio, some time ago and served time in the Ohio Penitentiary at Columbus.

The wife sets out in her petition that they were married in Mason county on May 30, 1914. She says her husband is guilty of habitually behaving toward her for not less than six months in such cruel and inhuman manner as to indicate a settled aversion to her and to destroy permanently her peace and happiness. The other grounds for divorce as set out in the petition is abandonment.

The wife asks not only for a divorce but for restoration to her maiden name.

MARKET WILL CLOSE WITH MUCH TOBACCO ON HAND

Indications are that the Maysville tobacco market will close this week with a large amount of tobacco on hand for the opening on next Monday. During the forepart of the week there was little tobacco delivered but during the past several days the tobacco has been coming in rather lively.

MANY ATTEND LECTURE

There was a good sized audience at the First M. E. Church, South last night to hear the illustrated lecture given in connection with the all day conference on the Centenary. Those attending were very much pleased and hope for many more such meetings before the close of the centenary drive.

Mrs. H. S. Kirk, of Champaign, Ill., joined her husband here last night and will remain here during the balance of the tobacco season. Mr. Kirk is employed with the R. J. Reynolds

COVINGTON BANDITS PAY IN THE ELECTRIC CHAIR FOR MURDER

Kearney Is Silent as He Pays Penalty at Eddyville This Morning But Lawyer Denies Guilt.

Eddyville, Ky., February 21—James Lawler and Patrick Kearney, both of Cincinnati, paid the penalty for their crimes in the electric chair at the penitentiary here this morning.

Lawler protested his innocence to the last, but Kearney merely said:
"I have nothing to say."

They were convicted in the Kenton county Circuit Court of killing Andrew Nordmeyer and John Rehm in a hold-up of the Ninth Ward Perpetual Loan and Building Association, 12th and Russell streets, Covington, March 5, 1918.

Lawler was the first to die, Kearney following shortly after. Lawler died at 3:42 a. m. and Kearney at 4:02.

One thousand eight hundred volts of electricity were sent twice through the body of each man.

"I am innocent and was given a raw deal and ought not to be in the penitentiary," Lawler said just before he was taken to the death chamber.

Lawler wrote three notes in his prayer book, one to his sister, Mrs. E.
Dolan, 1004 Columbus street, Newport, Ky. In all three he wrote:

"I am innocent. It is easy to die when you are blamed for something you did not do. So help me God, I am innocent."

Earlier Lawler said he was not in Covington on the night of the robbery.
When Lawler was led blindfolded to the chair he said: "Goodbye, boys; goodbye, warden."

While the current was passing through Lawler's body, Kearney was pacing his cell across the corridor opposite the death chamber. The whirl of the motor supplying the electricity, which soon would end his life, plainly could be heard by Kearney.

Kearney insisted he had nothing to say.

Just before Lawler was taken to the chamber he asked to see Kearney, and was taken to him.

When they met Kearney said:
"Jim, are you going to keep 'em?"
Lawler nodded his head and replied,
"Yes."

Kearney, it is believed, referred to some secret between the two men.

When Kearney was placed in the chair he said:

"I thank all you guards and the warden. Pray for me. I hope I am the last man to die in this chair."

OUR POLICY

To support such measures as are unquestionably for the good of Mason County as an entire community, rather than such propositions as are in favor of the individual interest, or of one section as against another. And likewise to earnestly and consistently oppose all things that are not for the good of the County as a whole.

THE DOWNTRODDEN DOURGEOISIE

Something new has come out of Germany. It is an assertion of the rights of the "bourgeoisie." This truly oppressed class has received no mercy either from profiteers and munition makers above or from the I. W. W.'s and bolsheviks below.

Years ago these people were praised as forming the solid foundation of society, but hardly any one will give them even a kind word nowadays. Speculators and radicals alike are bent on exploiting them.

But in Disseldorf, we are informed by a Berlin dispatch, the bourgeoisie have gone on strike as a protest against their exploiters and especially against Spartan terrorism. All the "average citizens"—the clerks, petty officials, business men, physicians, lawyers, and school teachers—have walked out; and, oddly enough, it is reported the city is at a standstill.

Well, we are probably having all the strikes and uprisings and disorder the world can stand these days. But the plain man on the street, whether it be in Chicago, New York, Seattle, or some foreign city, is beginning to feel that something ought to be done about his case. He isn't asking very much, and he is not disposed to take up a rifle to get it. Must all his rights (though he is not quite sure that he has any) be trampled upon?

Perhaps the peace conference can do something for him. A couple of sympathetic clauses in the articles of confederation of the league of nations might afford him at least a little consolation.—Chicago Tribune.

Unless all opinion is at fault, some years from now the kaiser would swap a kingdom for a heatless day.—Richmond News-leader.

2% on Sales

11% on Investment

Isn't this a reasonable profit?

It is what Swift & Company earned in 1918.

2 cents on each dollar of sales—only a fraction of a cent per pound—was too small to have any noticeable effect on prices.

11% on investment (capital and surplus) means only fair returns to the 25,000 shareholders; they received 8% dividends in 1918.

The 1918 earnings of Swift & Company were equivalent to a profit of only

$212 on Sales of $12,000

Would you be content with that margin of profit in your business?

This and many other interesting and instructive facts are shown in our 1919 Year Book, which will be sent on request. Address Swift & Company, Union Stock Yards, Chicago, Illinois.

ONE-FOURTH OF THE DRAFT ARMY CANNOT READ

Figures From Washington Disclose the Greatest Extent of Illiteracy in the Nation.

Washington, February 21—Striking figures dealing with illiteracy have been supplied to the Department of the Interior by the Surgeon General's office of the army in connection with the consideration of the Smith-Bankhead Americanization bill, which has just been introduced in Congress, providing for co-operation between the Federal Bureau of Education and the States in bringing the English language and citizenship to native illiterates and non-English-speaking persons.

The last prior indication as to illiteracy in this country was the census of 1910, which showed $8,500 non-English-speaking and native illiterate persons over 10 years of age, of which 5,500,000 were unable to read or write English. The basis of the census reports was the ability of the individual to write his own name and his own opinion as to whether he can speak English. The figures just released to the Interior Department by the War Department would seem to indicate that one-fourth of the adult males in the United States are illiterate in any language. The reports indicated that the educated foreign-born have been quick to learn English.

The War Department's records show that 24.9 per cent. of the draft army examined by that department's agents were unable to read and understand a newspaper or write letters home. Of 1,552,256 examined 386,196 were illiterate or unable to read and write English sufficiently to take the simple test "alpha" and had to be classed as "beta." The Surgeon General's figures were compiled on account of the need for giving examinations for normal intelligence and the necessity, in that connection, for the draftees to read simple examination questions.

The standards for determining the ability of recruits to take these tests varied in different camps. The general method was to ascertain whether the man could read a newspaper or write letters to his family. One of the surprising features of the data compiled by the Surgeon General's staff is the general indication that the percentage of negro illiteracy in some States is smaller than that of the whites, while another unexpected revelation is the fact that most of the foreign-born who are educated in their own language, can also read English. It had been generally assumed that it would be easy to communicate with foreign-born residents who do not speak English by means of their own language, but it now appears that most of those who cannot read and write our language cannot read and write at all.

Furthermore, the darkest hour in this man's world will come when woman will choose to be flattered more for her intellect than her looks.

INCOME TAX BILL PROVIDES SOME VERY HEAVY PENALTIES

Returns Must Be Filed On Or Before March 15--Information For Those Preparing Income Tax Reports.

Washington, February 20—Work on the collection of $6,000,000,000 has been begun by the Bureau of Internal Revenue. This is the estimated yield of the new revenue bill. The income tax provisions of the act reach the pocketbook of every single person in the United States whose net income for 1918 was $1,000, or more, and of every married person whose net income was $2,000, or more. Persons whose net income equalled or exceeded these amounts, according to their marital status, must file a return of income with the collector of internal revenue for the district in which they live on or before March 15.

Here is what will happen to them if they don't; for failure to file a return on time, a fine of not more than $1,000 and an additional assessment of 25 per cent. of the amount of the tax due.

For "willfully refusing" to make a return on time, a fine not exceeding $10,000, or not exceeding one year's imprisonment, or both.

For making a false or fraudulent return, a fine of not more than $10,000, or imprisonment for not more than one year, or both, together with an additional assessment of 50 per cent. of the amount of tax evaded.

For failure to pay the tax on time, a fine of not more than $1,000 and an additional assessment of 5 per cent. of the amount of tax unpaid, plus 1 per cent. interest for each full month during which it remains unpaid.

In addition to the $1,000 and $2,000 personal exemption, taxpayers are allowed an exemption of $200 for each person dependent upon them for chief support if such person is under eighteen years of age or incapable of self-support. Under the 1917 act, this exemption was allowed only for each dependent "child". The head of a family—one who supports one or more persons closely connected with him by blood relationship, relationship by marriage, or by adoption—is entitled to all exemptions allowed a married person.

The normal rate of tax under the new act is 6 per cent. of the first $4,000 of net income above the exemptions, and 12 per cent. of the net income in excess of $4,000. Income in excess of $5,000 are subject also to a surtax ranging from 1 per cent. of the amount of the net income between $5,000 and $6,000 to 65 per cent. of the net income above $1,000,000.

Payment of the tax may be made in full at the time of filing return or in four installments, on or before March 15, on or before June 15, on or before September 15, and on or before December 15.

Revenue officers will visit every county in the United States to aid taxpayers in making out their returns. The date of their arrival and the location of their offices may be ascertained by inquiring at the offices of collectors or internal revenue, post-offices and banks. Failure to see these officers, however, does not relieve the taxpayers of his obligation to file his return and pay his tax within the time specified by law. In this case taxpayers must seek the Government, not the Government the taxpayer.

UNCLE SAM—FINISHER

The United States had nothing whatever to do with the beginning of the world war.

Uncle Sam wasn't at all interested in German ambitions.

Had no signs whatever upon the Balkan future.

Regarded Alsace-Lorraine as a closed issue.

And wasn't interested particularly in the rivalries between Germany, England and France.

He was simply attending to his own business and sawing wood commercially.

But—When Germany began treading upon his toes.

Sinking his merchant vessels and making war upon innocent women and children.

Holding him up to the scorn of the world by outraging all the international conventions.

Then Uncle Sam took a hand with characteristic American aggressiveness.

And NOW! How he was in at the finish!

All the world appreciates that. Takes off its hat to America.

And now that it is reduced to a mere matter of dollars and cents, some $5,000,000,000 to be exact, needed to finish up the job. It is up to us Americans, one and all, individually and collectively, to finish right.

As Uncle Sam did and does and MUST.

With the whole world paying our soldiers and sailors homage; looking to America as the apostle of liberty; accepting American ideals as final; we dare not fail in our individual duty.

We must make good with our dollars as Uncle Sam made good with his army.

We must put the Victory-Liberty loan over the top BIG.

We must be true to ourselves.

Percy Noodles says that when he called on the capitalist's daughter last night he wore his wrist watch, and her little brother called from the door: "Hurry, Sis; there's a feller down here with ticks on his arm!"

COMMUNITY BUILDINGS AS SOLDIER MEMORIALS

Raise Funds In Form of Liberty Bonds For Fifth Loan, Says Bureau of Education—Many Communities Showing Preference For This Type of Memorial.

Soldiers memorial in the form of community buildings, dedicated to civic and social uses, and, wherever possible, built with bonds at the fifth liberty loan, are urged by the Bureau of Education, Department of the Interior, in a circular sent to every school community in the United States.

A number of communities have already concluded that a building, in constant use as a reminder of the sacrifice made by the soldiers and sailors of the Great War, is more appropriate and enduring than the conventional grave-yard monument. "There is a growing conviction," says Dr. Henry E. Jackson, author of the Bureau's circular, "that the conventional stone shaft, placed in a graveyard among the dead, is not a fitting memorial to those who died for freedom. The suggestion, made both in France and America, that these memorials take the form of community buildings, dedicated to civic and social uses, is obviously wise and ought to meet universal approval. On the walls of such a building should hang a bronze tablet containing the names of each community's martyrs to liberty.

The Roll of Honor

"This type of memorial will guarantee that no boy who gave his life for justice and freedom will be forgotten. The number of American lives lost in this war is very small in comparison to those lost in the Civil War. If a community lost only three or four, it might not think it worth while to build a monument. But a community building is needed entirely apart from its memorial purpose. The chief advantage of this type of memorial, however, is not that it is economical, but that it keeps green an inspiring memory; and it seeks to put into operation, through its civic and social activities, the ideals for which our boys fought in France.

Liberty Bonds For Buildings

"Funds for this purpose could be raised more easily, if they were raised in the form of Liberty Bonds during the fifth loan, which is to come in the spring. The bonds can be used as money when the time comes to build. Thus a community can serve itself, while, at the same time, it is rendering a national service. By this method more money for the Government could be raised than by any other. Not only would many individuals gladly contribute an extra bond or two for the benefit of their local community, but many who are unable to do this could pool their small gifts and contribute to a bond. Likewise, entertainments and social activities can be utilized to raise money for the same purpose. Opportunity should be given for as many as possible to have a part in the enterprise. For men to contribute outright a few liberty bonds to a local community cause, will help to dispel the delusion that a man is when he puts his money into an investment which offers the best security in the world and a fair rate of interest. To couple the fifth loan with free gifts and soldiers' memorials will make it in a real sense a Victory Loan. It will be much more than this. It will be a Reconstruction Loan.

Should Be the School

"Wherever possible this community memorial building ought to be the public school house, in order to prevent needless waste through duplication. It is the logical community center. It is non-partisan, non-sectarian and non-exclusive. It is owned and operated by all the people and therefore furnishes a platform on which all can meet on terms of self-respect. The schoolhouse could be remodeled or enlarged or replaced by a new one. It is the natural capitol and clubhouse of every community. In rural districts small schools should of course be consolidated in order to eliminate a waste and secure a community large enough to support the kind of building here proposed.

"The schoolhouse ought to be used for this purpose wherever possible. If in any place the school officials are unprogressive and unawake to their

EVIDENCE THAT CONVINCES

A Twice-Told Tale That Will Carry Conviction to Ledger Readers.

Fourteen years ago, Mrs. Burns publicly endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. She then told of benefit she had received.

With unshaken confidence, she confirms her statement—Tells how passing years have strengthened her faith in Doan's. There's no better test than the test of time.

Can any Maysville reader ask for more convincing evidence?

Mrs. John Burns, West Second Street, says: "I was subject to severe spells of backache and other kidney trouble. They would come on every three or six months and there were times when I was confined to bed and rendered helpless. I used Doan's Kidney Pills and the quick and decided benefit I received from Doan's Kidney Pills was wonderful. I have never had such severe attacks since."

(Statement given February 13, 1914.)

On November 15, 1916, Mrs. Burns said: "I have the same good words of praise for Doan's Kidney Pills today, as ever. I have not needed a kidney medicine since I first took them."

THERE BE BULLS AND "BULLS"

For some unexplained reason the government operators of the railroads have evidently let one of the railroads "put one over" on them. It is announced that a boy in Griffin, Ga., has been awarded a prize thoroughbred bull offered by the Southern of Georgia Railroad in a calf-club contest. After having compelled the railroads to cease employing chemists to develop chemical industries along their lines, it is surprising that a road would be permitted to give away a bull to encourage breeding of better cattle in the territory it serves. From the standpoint of government operation, here is a sheer waste. The government operators out sold soldiers of business, they cut out advertising, they discontinued branch ticket offices—all in the name of economy. But they let a railroad give away a bull for the encouragement of production of better cattle. First thing we know the Railroad Administration will realize his mistake and restore the chemists and permit advertising of the superior service of various railroads. Give 'em time enough and the makers of railroad policy under government operation might learn a lot of things; but consider the cost to the people of educating the autocrats.

The Busy Hour for Telephoning

If we comprehend that residences are ordering their groceries and supplies—that retailers are ordering from the wholesalers, that freight depots are notifying their consignees, and professionals making their daily appointments—at just the time we are doing our own ordering, it must be between nine and ten o'clock in the morning.

If the "line is busy" when we call at that time, it is also busy for others when we are using it, and the whole situation might be relieved if we called later in the day.

If the person persists in visiting during the busy hours will have fine consideration for others, she will do it later in the day. She will not under any circumstances talk over five minutes. And she will use the telephone on party lines for reasonable and necessary purposes only.

STANLEY PREPARING TO GO TO WASHINGTON

Democratic Friends Are Urging Governor To Be Sworn In as Senator March 4.

Frankfort, Ky., February 21—Whether or not Governor Stanley has decided upon the date of the relinquishment of the executive chair for the legislative seat, he has begun preparations to leave the mansion, and household effects are being packed for shipment.

The Governor will go to Washington as soon as possible after the final adjournment of the State Textbook Commission, and it is probable that while there or upon his return he will announce his determination.

Some of his friends are urging him to be sworn in as Senator March 4, at which time the present Congress adjourns and the term of Senator George Martin ends. Their reason is that the Republican Senate, which will sit at the next session or any extraordinary session which may intervene, might declare his seat vacant on some technicality, as the Senate is judge of the qualifications of its own members.

On the other hand the term of Nat B. Sewell on the Workmen's Compensation Board expires in April and the term of Ben D. Ringo on the State Tax Commission expires in July. In that month, or later, too, the Governor will have a third member of the Tax Commission to appoint as the Auditor will cease to be a member of the commission with the end of the present administration.

Mrs. D. Brooks is at home after an extended visit with relatives at Cincinnati and Lexington.

SOLDIER WHO PASSED BAD CHECK ALSO STOLE CLOTHING

Man Who Passed Bad Check on Eastland Boarding House Also Stole Another Boarding House and Stole Boarder's Clothing.

It became known today that the man in soldiers' clothing who gave his name as H. D. Adams and who passed a bad check on Mrs. Albert Potts, Eastland Boarding House keeper, also stole another boarding house in the East end and got away with a suit case full of clothes belonging to one of the boarders.

Adams had been boarding for some time at Gully's boarding house in Forest avenue and yesterday he is to have told Mrs. Gully that he had been asked by John Pollitt, one of the boarders, to bring his suit case of clothes to him and that Pollitt's father would settle the board bill of both young men.

Adams left the boarding house taking with him Pollitt's clothes and it is supposed he went from there to Potts' boarding house where he passed a bad check for $18 on Mrs. Potts. The police were hot on the trail of the man yesterday but they learned that he took a steam boat at the local wharf shortly before noon and went down the river. As he has a supply of civilian clothes in Pollitt's suitcase, he will be hard now to locate.

THE CENTENAL MEETING AT FIRST M. E. CHURCH, SOUTH

Yesterday was a day filled with good things for those who attended the Missionary Meeting at the First M. E. Church, South. Rev. J. D. Redd presided, stirring address were delivered by Rev. Mr. Crockett of Shelbyville, Rev. W. V. Cropper, Conference Evangelist, and Mr. Dennis Snapp of Paris, on subjects related to the great Centennial Celebration now on. The ladies of First Church served lunch to the delegates and visitors being much to their comfort.

The pastors of the Maysville district were all present except a few kept away by sickness. The speakers gave cheering news of the progress of the Centennial. Two million dollars have already been pledged, before the drive has begun. Everything indicates a successful effort in raising the proposed $35,000,000 for Missionary purposes.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Lesson For February 23, 1919. International Sunday School

Topic: "Moses Praying For Israel."

Moses was one of the greatest, if not the greatest men that ever lived. Among the things that made him great was his ability to pray. He seemed to get closer to God than any other man. In this lesson he appears pleading with God for the people that God had entrusted to his leadership, but who had fallen into idolatry so soon after God's wonderful manifestation to them at the giving of the commandments noted in our last lesson. They had said in that awful scene "All that He commands us we will do," and yet in a few days they made a golden calf and worshipped it. How frail is man! How weak! How vassilating! How much he needs pastoral care! How many people, today, join the church, make a profession of religion and then go back to the world! Their number is legion.

At first Moses was angry with his people for their base idolatry, but on sober reflection he assumed a different mood, and went before God to plead for mercy for them. Here appears another of the noble traits in the character of Moses—his unselfishness.

His intimacy with God has now given him a bold familiarity, and in almost reproachful terms he addresses the Lord, "And Moses said unto the Lord, See, thou sayest unto me, bring up this people; and thou hast not let me know whom thou wilt send with me. . . . If thy presence go not with me, carry us not up hence." Moses was unwilling to undertake so great a task alone. He knew his limitations. Happy is the man who realizes that in all christian work he can succeed only when God goes with him. More failures occur from a lack of faith in God and too much reliance upon self than from any other cause.

The Bible abounds with promises of success to God's faithful workers if they will only rely upon God for success. Our only assurance is in God's blessing upon our efforts.

Again as Christian workers we need another of Moses' strong points of character, and that is patience with the disobedient and unfaithful. No leader was ever more severely tried at this point than Moses. Yet he never deserted them. In a great emergency when God was determined to blot them from the face of the earth and make a great nation out of him, he prayed that he be blotted out and they saved. Nearness to God is the only way to possess such an unselfish spirit as this. The need of this spirit renders us weak and inefficient in our service to men. Until we become thus sublimated by the refining grace of God we will be only bunglers and failure in our efforts to save men. Let us pray.

BOYS' CLUB AGENT COMING HERE NEXT WEEK

Expert in Boys and Girls Clubs Will Spend Several Days in Mason County—Poultry Expert Is Also Coming.

County Agent George Kirk announces that on next Friday Mr. Frank M. Barrett, Special Agent of the State Experiment Station on Boys' and Girls' Clubs work, will be here and it is possible he will be in Mason county for several days.

It had been hoped that Mr. Barrett would be able to organize a number of Boys and Girls Club and Corn Clubs throughout the county during his stay here and a date fixed some time ago was moved forward to Friday so that he could meet with the youngsters at the schools. Health conditions in the county, however, have not improved as was expected and the schools will not be in operation. It is expected that in spite of this handicap, a number of clubs will be organized.

Mr. Kirk also announced this afternoon that Mr. Chaffin, poultry expert from the Experiment station, would be here on next Monday to hold conference with the local poultry enthusiasts and to help out in the plans for the coming season in Mason county.

AUTO TRUCK SMASHES INTO FREIGHT STATION

Leslie Clemens, driver of the Maysville automobile truck, met with a rather bad accident at the C. & O. freight station yesterday. The truck was moving slowly toward the freight station when Clemens made an effort to put on his brake. Instead of striking the brake with his foot he struck another lever which shot the heavy truck forward at a rapid rate of speed and the machine crashed into the station doing considerable damage to the machine and to the building as well but Clemens escaped without injury.

SCHOOLS CELEBRATE BIRTHDAY TODAY

Tomorrow is George Washington's birthday but as it is Saturday and no school will be held, the school kiddies will celebrate in their school this afternoon. Some of the schools will render a very attractive program.

MANY REDS WILL BE RAISED IN MASON COUNTY THIS YEAR

Mason County's Output of Pure Bred Rhode Island Red Eggs Will Be All Taken Up For Hatching In This County, It Appears.

From the manner in which orders are being placed for pure bred Rhode Island Red eggs in this county, it appears that the entire output of pure bred Rhode Island Red eggs will be sold directly back to the farmers of this county for hatching.

Indications are that Mason county will have a great hatch of pure bred fowls this year and that the county will be filled with pure bred chickens before the close of the season.

Orders are coming into the Chamber of Commerce in large numbers for eggs which go back onto other farms in this county. Fourteen orders were filed at the Chamber of Commerce today up to three o'clock this afternoon for a setting of the eggs each.

Those desiring eggs should take time by the forelock and place their orders early for it will not only assure the farmer of his eggs but will also give the Chamber of Commerce and the County Agent an idea as to how many eggs will be necessary and if this county cannot furnish the eggs, orders will be placed elsewhere.

SATURDAY IS HOLIDAY

Saturday — George Washington's Birthday — is another legal holiday and will be generally celebrated over the nation. No arrangements for any special programs have been made for Maysville and Mason county but the day will be quietly celebrated.
